

NBU okays new PG courses for IILS

STATESMAN NEWS SERVICE
SILIGURI, 17 MAY

North Bengal University (NBU) has granted permission to the Indian Institute of Legal Studies (IILS), Dagapur, Siliguri, to impart Post-Graduate courses in Public Administration and Governance and Master of Laws (LL.M) from the academic session 2019-2020.

This development has made IILS the first such institute in the North-Eastern region to introduce post graduate courses in public administration and governance, which the institute said, was unique. The courses focus on addressing challenges of policy innovation, policy analysis, policy research, relation between government and industry, social policy, governance for the public service delivery, legal and regulatory issues, teaching and consultancy for policy analysis and other various aspects pertaining to administration and government policy.

"This unique course will play a very vital role in enhancing the skill and expertise of people engaged in various administrative services like policy formulation and policy implementation in our country," Joyjit Chowdhury, the Founder chairman of IILS told a press conference here today. Sanjoy Bhattacharya, the principal of IILS said that in addition to the Public Administration and Governance, the introduction of Master of Laws (LL.M) in their Institute will facilitate several aspiring students of the Northern-Eastern region to quench the thirst of knowledge in the field of legal education.

Tapas Kumar Chatterjee, the Director of IILS said, "IILS welcomes all education loving people to avail of the benefit of such higher study program to serve nation in a better way."

